

I do not wish to be contacted by any bank that I do or have done business with unless I have so agreed. I have access to internet contact from the banks I wish to hear from. I do NOT want banks and other financial institutions to use telemarketing in contacts with me. The no call list Indiana that Indiana presently has keeps my telephone calls to a real minimum and I prefer it this way.